

WHAT IS A CRO?

CRO | Contract Research Organization

CROs are life science companies that provide contracted support for the drug development process in the biotechnology, pharmaceutical, and medical device industries – reducing the cost of research and development. Simply put, CROs help bring medicinal products and medical devices to the market.

CRO SERVICES

CLINICAL TRIALS MANAGEMENT

Site and patient recruitment, study monitoring

PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT PLANNING

Market research, product registration

DATA MANAGEMENT

Database design, data entry & validation

RESEARCH COMPLIANCE

Audits & FDA and European Medicines Agency (EMA) inspection support

MEDICAL WRITING

Study protocols, manuscripts

PHARMACOVIGILANCE

Assessment & surveillance

AND MORE!

WORLDWIDE CLINICAL TRIALS

We offer flexible, efficient, and tailored solutions that put patient safety and data quality first through an unparalleled combination of people, processes, technologies, and tools.

FOUNDED IN 1986

by physicians committed to advancing medical science

SPECIALIZES IN 5 MAJOR THERAPEUTIC AREAS

cardiovascular, metabolic, neuroscience, oncology, and rare diseases.

3,000+

PROFESSIONALS

who work with passion and purpose every day to improve patient lives

SERVICES SPAN

ALL PHASES

of drug development

OPERATING IN

60+ COUNTRIES

Are you seeking a career with purpose?

Visit www.Worldwide.com/careers to learn more about our services and join our global team of clinical trial experts.

WORLDWIDE
CLINICAL TRIALS